He was buried in St. Stephen Lutheran Cemetery (old), Highland Twp., Defiance Co., OH. In Germany, George Nicholas was a farmer and a weaver. In preparation for the trip to America, he sold his farm at No. 1 Neudorf (near Schauenstein in Bavaria) on 18 Dec, 1846. The family, including George and seven children, made their way to Hamburg in the spring of 1847 to board a sailing ship for the journey across the Atlantic. At Hamburg, the baby, less than a year old, became sick and could not be taken on board the ship. So John Elias and Margaret stayed with the baby while George and the four younger children boarded the ship. They arrived in New York in July then proceeded to Buffalo where they stayed at the home of Henry Beyer. Meanwhile the baby died in Hamburg and the two older children continued their journey, arriving in New York in August. George Nicholas traveled west to look for land in Wisconsin. On the way he stopped to visit the Greenlers near Defiance, Ohio, liked the land there and made his first land purchase on 18 Aug, 1847. On arrival back in Buffalo, he learned Katharine had decided to marry Henry Beyer and remain in Buffalo. The remainder of the family then traveled to and settled on the 'South Ridge' near Defiance, Ohio.
